FOIA No. 2011-073

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request received by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs (CGB) and Enforcement (EB) Bureaus. Your request seeks copies of complaints received at the FCC regarding the television show "The Colbert Report" between January 2003 and the present. You requested that we omit complaints that appear to be the product of a mass mailing, a coordinated complaint campaign, or are duplicative or repetitive.

Arthur Scrutchins of CGB conducted a search of the databases containing informal complaints and identified approximately eighteen complaints responsive to your request. Copies of the responsive documents are enclosed. EB identified four complaints responsive to your request. Copies of these responsive documents are also enclosed.

Mr. Scrutchins redacted all personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy.<sup>1</sup> Mr. Scrutchins also redacted some FCC employee names based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.<sup>2</sup>

Please be advised that the Commission receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, the existence of a complaint filed against a particular carrier or business entity does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or business entities named in the complaint.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.<sup>3</sup> Based on your classification as an "all other" requester, the FCC does not charge you for the first two hours of search time and the first 100 pages of copying.<sup>4</sup> Because preparing the response to your request falls within these limits, the FCC is not charging you for processing it.

<sup>2</sup> 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(2); see also 47 C.F.R. § 0.457(b).

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days.<sup>5</sup> Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2011-073.

Sincerely,

Complaint Summary

The television program aired was completely appropriate, but the advertisements promoting Missy Smith, that showed aborted fetuses were dispicable and utterly offensive. I honestly can't believe that I was subjected to such disturbing images. These images were broadcast into my living room, and were not asked for nor were they sought out. I would have never thought that this program would have contained such images. I am completely shocked and I hope there is something done to fine this station and any other staion that aired these commercials. I could care less about the political aspect of these advertisements, because the candidate is not even running in my state. All I care about is the graphic nature of the advertisements.

Complaint Summary

The material I found offensive (sexually suggestive and racially stereotyped (black men and attractive white women)) was contained in the AXE commercial segments that are injected into the internet feed of Comedy Central's Colbert Report. Repeated references to cleaning one's "balls", "ball sacks" and images of a woman fondling a pair of golf balls are thinly veiled references to men's genitalia. Further, the use of attractive Caucasian women and African American males is a demeaning racial stereotype.

The Colbert Report airs @ 11:30 nightly where the language may meet the guidelines of the FCC, but then comedy central and cox cable rebroadcast the same show the following morning during the morning hours where the language is considered more offensive. Children will flip channels on a snow day, and they should not be subjected to Stephen Cobert suggesting that someone is a F**king retard. It is offensive, and should not be tolerated by the FCC. It seems a double standard exist for vile comedians verse a not so vile radio disc jockey?

Colbert did a report about a new exhibit dedicated solely to dead bodies having sex as part of the Body Worlds exhibitions. Onscreen for several minutes was a photo of one of the displays from the exhibit featuring the dead bodies of a man and a woman having sex. The woman was seated upright on top of the man. I was not happy to have my teenage son see this.

Complaint Summary

Steven Colbert did a segment on prayer using cheerleaders. During their routine one of the cheerleaders does a couple of high kicks, and she is not wearing panties. My 16 year old son saw this and recorded it to show me later. This can also be viewed on <http://www.colbertnation.com/home>. Select Thursday May 7, 2009 'Clasp Your Hands Say Yahweh' and go to time marker 05:55-56/04:46. Although this was a fast view of her vagina, she was also wearing a large cross on her uniform. I find this type of behavior to be unacceptable, and I hope you feel the same. I believe this was an intention act.

Dear Consumer,

Programming considered indecent, obscene, violent or otherwise offensive to some viewers may be transmitted over cable systems. The FCC Cannot Restrict Non-Broadcast (Cable) Programming.

Cable operators do not have the same restrictions on program content as regular television broadcast stations.

If you still want to file a complaint please provide information as stated below:

The fastest and easiest way to file a complaint about an obscene, indecent, or profane broadcast is to use the FCC's electronic complaint Form 475B, available on our Web site at <http://fjallfoss.fcc.gov/cgb/fcc475B.cfm>.

You may also file a complaint by e-mail at fccinfo@fcc.gov or by calling 1-888-CALL-FCC (1-888-225-5322) voice, 1-888-TELL-FCC (1-888-835-5322) TTY or by faxing to 1-866-418-0232. You can also mail your complaint to:

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554.

" The FCC asks complainants to provide with their complaints as much of the following information as possible:

- Information regarding the details of what was actually said or depicted during the broadcast (such as specific words, language, images, etc).
- The date and time of the broadcast.
- The call sign, channel, or frequency of the station involved.

It is also helpful if you provide the following information:

- The name of the program, DJ, personality, song, or film and network.
- City and state where you heard or saw the program.
- A transcript, audiotape, CD/DVD or other recording in support of your complaint. This is not required, but may help expedite the processing of your complaint.

Mr. Colbert used the name of Christ in vain, arrogantly and flippantly.

He also used God's name in vain, arrogantly and flippantly.

I was deeply offended. It added nothing to his attempt at "humor"

I believe he should be sanctioned for his complete disrespect toward God and those who love and respect God and His Son Jesus Christ.

It is my understanding this is against FCC rules.

Problem Description

The Colbert Report featured Toby Keith as a guest star. Toby Keith performed a racist song that advocates lynching. The song includes the following lyrics: "Grandpappy told my pappy back in my day, son A man had to answer for the wicked that he'd done Take all the rope in Texas Find a tall oak tree, round up all of them bad boys Hang them high in the street For all the people to see" The violent, racist history of the southern U.S. is nothing to be proud of. This blatant advocacy of lynching is highly offensive and has no place on the air

Complaint Summary:

The Colbert Report is given a PG rating but has extreme obscenity in the commercials. The material is pornographic and should not be aired if the program is rated PG. The commercial is "Girls Gone Wild". The FCC need to look into the advertising of Girls Gone Wild and put a stop to the filth. I was in the kitchen making dinner when my 11 year old daughter brought it to my attention. She was subjected to lesbian pornography by the Colbert Report and I am angry to say the least. This should not EVER happen during a PG (or PG13) program. Please HELP!!!

It runs in the middle of the night. It is entertainment for results.; So why are they needing to bleep out words to prevent FCC fines? I resent the FCC telling me how to raise my children and feel the FCC is sidetracked from its mission.; [REDACTED] Saratoga, CA 95070;

Complaint Summary:

Today's O'Reilly program featured two guest hosts. Around 5:15 pm, the hosts introduced a segment on John Mellencamp's interview on The Colbert Report, a half-hour program on the Comedy Central Network. During that interview, Mellencamp revealed that he would not have responded to the 9/11 attack on the US. ; The guest hosts then introduced the program's entertainment correspondent, a woman who said her solution to Mellencamp and anyone that held the same views as he on the war was to forcibly tie him to a chair and make him watch videotapes of Al Qaeda beheading American soldiers until he "thought right" on the topic.; I found this entire segment of the show, which extended into the 5:30 - 5:45 pm timeslot, to be extremely offensive.

I was very upset that some of the speech was bleeped. During Stephen Colbert's interview with his guest, a word was ; censored. This is unacceptable. I am offended that when people express themselves, their speech is censored to not ; contain certain words. Have you watched stand up comedy with certain words bleeped out? It's horrible. I am deeply ; disturbed by this censorship and I want something done about it.; Sincerely,; [REDACTED] <sup>b6</sup>

Complaint Summary

Steven Colbert did a segment on prayer using cheerleaders. During their routine one of the cheerleaders does a couple of high kicks, and she is not wearing panties. My 16 year old son saw this and recorded it to show me later. This can also be viewed on <http://www.colbertnation.com/home>. Select Thursday May 7, 2009 'Clasp Your Hands Say Yahweh' and go to time marker 05:55-56/04:46. Although this was a fast view of her vagina, she was also wearing a large cross on her uniform. I find this type of behavior to be unacceptable, and I hope you feel the same. I believe this was an intention act.

Complaint Summary

Colbert did a report about a new exhibit dedicated solely to dead bodies having sex as part of the Body Worlds exhibitions. Onscreen for several minutes was a photo of one of the displays from the exhibit featuring the dead bodies of a man and a woman having sex. The woman was seated upright on top of the man. I was not happy to have my teenage son see this.

Complaint Summary

The Colbert Report airs @ 11:30 nightly where the language may meet the guidelines of the FCC, but then comedy central and cox cable rebroadcast the same show the following morning during the morning hours where the language is considered more offensive. Children will flip channels on a snow day, and they should not be subjected to Stephen Cobert suggesting that someone is a F**king retard. It is offensive, and should not be tolerated by the FCC. It seems a double standard exist for vile comedians verse a not so vile radio disc jockey?
